Helpful Ordering Information

Wall Cabinets

- Cabinet Type Letters at the beginning of cabinet model numbers, such as “W”, refer to the group of cabinet-type (“B” for base, “W” for wall, “V” for vanity)
- Cabinet Species The second letter designation refers to the wood species and door design of the cabinet. The letter “J” in the example above indicates flat panel maple doors and maple face frame.
- Cabinet Width The numbers after the letters refer to the width of the cabinet. In the example above, the “24” indicates that the actual width of the face frame is 24 inches.
- Cabinet Height The second set of numbers refer to the cabinet height [in inches]. Specialty cabinets are a standard 30” high, and designated by a special two-letter code such as “CR” for corner cabinet, “LS” for Lazy Susan, etc.
- Door Option The last letter refers to the available door options. Add an “A” for arch, “C” for cathedral and “M” for mullions

Base and Vanity Cabinets

- Cabinet Type Letters at the beginning of cabinet model numbers, such as “B”, refer to the group of cabinet-type (“B” for base, “W” for wall, “V” for vanity)
- Cabinet Species The second letter designation refers to the wood species and door design of the cabinet. The letter “O” in the example above indicates raised panel oak doors and oak face frame.
- Cabinet Width The numbers after the letters refer to the width of the cabinet. In the example above, the “27” indicates that the actual width of the face frame is 27 inches.
- Cabinet Type Cabinets that have a letter (or letters) at the end are specialty cabinets. “SB” stands for sink base, “CR” for corner cabinet, “E” for combination vanities, etc.
